Spring – new beginnings

Is this April – with all this rain?!?! It's almost shocking when we get to see the sun. Hopefully spring is just around the corner. I love this time of year when everything starts blooming again!

It is amazing how quickly this year has flown by. These children grow up so fast – before you know it they will be in high school. Cherish this time when they are little. They are amazing as you listen to their precious little voices and I love the way their minds work. What a blessing they are!!!

Fri., March 29th

There will be no
MDO

Information Please . . .

Even at this late date in the year we feel we need to remind you of a very important aspect of our program. If you bring your child in, please sign in. Make sure you leave contact information of anyone else that might be picking your child up that day. If you do carpool, have the information in your child's bag. Please do not hand the info to the ladies doing carpool duty :) If you are having a friend or relative pick your child up – we must have a name and number for them.

reminders

Please pick your children up promptly at 1:00 in consideration of our teachers and office staff! We have places to go and schedules to keep, also, and being even 10 minutes late can cause a problem. This will also keep your child from getting upset when Mom hasn't come yet. :)

Please continue to send a light jacket or sweater for your child on cool mornings. We will go outside each day when the weather permits. LABEL THEM!

Make sure you let us know if you have a change of plans for next year or have a new address!!!
