TERMS OF COUNSELING FOR ALL COUNSELEES

The counseling ministry at Briarwood Presbyterian Church is committed to a biblical counseling philosophy. Lay and Staff Counselors are actively involved in this ministry. All counselors who participate in this service have completed training in Biblical Counseling. We are confident in the level of commitment and compassion of all those who serve in this ministry. For appropriate accountability and leadership Lay Counselors are supervised by Staff Counselors and Staff Counselors are supervised by the Director of Counseling. Because of our commitment to training Biblical Counselors, Lay Counselors in Training or Counseling Interns may observe and participate in your counseling sessions as deemed appropriate by your Counselor.

Charges

Counseling services are provided without charge both to Briarwood members and members of the community at large. A Love Offering for the ministry is encouraged. Reimbursements and fees, however, are received to assist in defraying actual expenses for various assessments, profiles, seminars, and workshops.

Confidentiality

Confidentiality is an important aspect of the counseling process, and we will carefully guard the information you entrust to us. There are four situations, however, when it may be necessary for us to share certain information with others: when a counselor is uncertain how to address a particular problem and needs to seek advice from another professional, pastor or elder in this church; when a counselee attends another church and it is necessary to talk with his or her pastor or elders; when there is a clear indication that someone may be harmed unless others intervene; or when a person persistently refuses to renounce a particular sin and it becomes necessary to seek the assistance of others in the church to encourage repentance and reconciliation (see Proverbs 15:22; 24:11; Matthew 18:15-20). Please be assured that our counselors strongly prefer not to disclose personal information to others, and they will make every effort to help you find ways to resolve a problem as privately as possible.

Counselors refer any counselee who appears to be in a suicidal condition to a Staff Counselor trained to provide appropriate care and protection. All counselors report any incident of suspected child abuse, domestic violence, destructive threats, or subpoenas to the Director of Counseling to be reported to the appropriate authorities as required by law. The Director of Counseling will review mediation agreements administered by counselors. Certain laws require that counselors warn the appropriate individuals if any counselee expresses an intent to or appears likely to take harmful, dangerous or criminal action against a counselor/s or any other person.

Appointment Cancellation Policy: Please notify the Counseling Office at least 24 hours in advance if you cannot keep a scheduled appointment so that we may serve others.

Not Professional Advice: Some of our counselors work in professional fields outside the church. When serving as counselors within this church, however, they do not provide the same kind of professional advice and services that they do in their professional capacities. Therefore, if you have significant legal, financial, medical, or other technical questions, you should seek advice from an independent professional. Our pastoral and lay counselors will be happy to cooperate with such advisors and help you to consider their counsel in the light of relevant scriptural principles.

Waiver of Liability

THE UNDERSIGNED, having sought Biblical counseling such as offered by Briarwood, a non-profit religious organization, hereby acknowledges his/her understanding of the above and the following conditions:

1. It is understood by the participant counselee that all Biblical Counseling will be provided by seminary-trained Counselors, not licensed therapists;
2. That all counseling provided in the Biblical Counseling program is provided in accordance with the Biblical principles adhered to by Briarwood Church and are not necessarily provided in adherence to any local or national psychological or psychiatric association;
3. That no representation has been made, either expressly or implied, that the Biblical counseling, as conducted by the above-mentioned Lay or Staff Counselors, is accepted as customary psychological and/or psychiatric therapy within the definitional terms utilized by those professions.
4. Certain statements may not be protected as privileged communications under law.
5. I agree that any dispute that with a counselor or with this church arising from or related to counseling will be settled by mediation and, if necessary, legally binding arbitration in accordance with the Rules of Procedure of the Institute for Christian Conciliation, a division of Peacemaker Ministries.
6. By signing this consent, I agree that I will not attempt to subpoena or require any counselor to appear in any legal proceeding related to any matters discussed during counseling; nor will I attempt to subpoena any notes or records related to this counseling. Furthermore, I release Briarwood, its agents, counselors and employees, from any liability or claim arising from the counselee's participation in the above mentioned Biblical Counseling program:
