

“Prudent Preparation”

Luke 16:1-13

I. Introduction. “Do we prepare for our future half as much as people of the world prepare for their future?”

II. Exposition. Notice the manager’s strategy...

A. Simply reduce their _____ (6).

B. Trim off the “_____” part of their obligation (7).

III. Jesus’ Lessons – Verse 9 - We have the opportunity of using the resources that God has given us (worldly wealth) to bless others. Therefore, when those resources are gone, and we have gone to our heavenly reward, we will be welcomed by those we’ve blessed.

Jesus digs deeper to show us what it’s like to be faithful.

A. Being faithful begins with _____ (v. 10).

B. Being faithful continues into _____ (v. 11-12).

Verses 11-12 remind us that we are under observation to determine...

1. How we manage _____ here.

2. How we manage _____ property here.

C. Being faithful means we serve only one _____ (v.13). When the manager in the parable served himself, he ripped off his boss. So with us. But at least he was thinking ahead.

Jesus says, “Many Christians are not even thinking ahead!”

IV. Conclusion. Many professors of faith have never transferred their devotion to Christ. The issue has huge implications!

“Prudent Preparation”

Luke 16:1-13

I. Introduction. “Do we prepare for our future half as much as people of the world prepare for their future?”

II. Exposition. Notice the manager’s strategy...

A. Simply reduce their _____ (6).

B. Trim off the “_____” part of their obligation (7).

III. Jesus’ Lessons – Verse 9 - We have the opportunity of using the resources that God has given us (worldly wealth) to bless others. Therefore, when those resources are gone, and we have gone to our heavenly reward, we will be welcomed by those we’ve blessed.

Jesus digs deeper to show us what it’s like to be faithful.

A. Being faithful begins with _____ (v. 10).

B. Being faithful continues into _____ (v. 11-12).

Verses 11-12 remind us that we are under observation to determine...

1. How we manage _____ here.

2. How we manage _____ property here.

C. Being faithful means we serve only one _____ (v.13). When the manager in the parable served himself, he ripped off his boss. So with us. But at least he was thinking ahead.

Jesus says, “Many Christians are not even thinking ahead!”

IV. Conclusion. Many professors of faith have never transferred their devotion to Christ. The issue has huge implications!