WOMEN'S IN-TOWN RETREAT

The Church, The Bride of Christ

Scripture uses many rich metaphors to help us understand what the church is and who we are together. Ephesians 1:23 uses the metaphor of the church as the body, reminding us of our need for each other; John 15:1–5 uses the metaphor of the vine and branches, reminding us of our dependence on Him; and John 10:1–15 uses the beautiful metaphor of the flock of sheep, reminding us we are united under one shepherd. Ephesians 2:19 and 2 Corinthians 6:18 remind us that the church is a family that we have been adopted into by God our Father. We are not just “church friends” but we are actually in covenant relationship with one another forever!

The metaphor we will look at this retreat weekend is that of the Bride of Christ, and it is specifically mentioned in Ephesians 5:22–23, 2 Corinthians 11:2 and Revelation 21:2, 9. As we unpack what it means that we, the church, are the Bride of Christ, my prayer is that it will grow us in our love of the Bridegroom and that it will enhance our understanding of the church.

Everyday Gospel: A Daily Devotional Connecting Scripture to All of Life* by Paul David Tripp | Adult Book

Paul David Tripp, author of bestselling New Morning Mercies, has written a second daily devotional, offering 365 fresh, engaging entries that follow an annual Bible reading plan from Genesis through Revelation. Christians know that daily scripture reading is an essential spiritual discipline, but sometimes opening the Bible day in and day out can feel like a burden rather than the joy and gift that it is. Spending a few minutes reflecting on the truths found within God's word can strengthen your faith, help you resist sin, and inspire you to live for the eternal, unshakeable kingdom of God. In the Everyday Gospel devotional, Tripp provides a roadmap for readers who want to spend a full year in God's Word. Brief and practical, these reflections connect the transforming power of scripture to all you will experience in your everyday Christian life. Price: $23.99
